

SAFETY HEALTH ECONOMICS & EDUCATION

SHE MATTERS SUMMIT

AN INITIATIVE TO BUILD A STATEWIDE FOCUS ON THE STATUS OF ETHNIC MINORITY WOMEN IN ARIZONA

Funding provided by JP Morgan Chase

September 30, 2011
10 am - 2 pm
Pulliam Auditorium, Burton Barr Central Library
1221 N. Central Ave., Downtown Phoenix

Please join us at this inaugural summit.

SHE Matters is a collaboration between the Arizona Foundation for Women and Arizona State University. SHE Matters will explore some of the ways organizations and agencies are working to identify and address safety, health, economic and educational challenges for Arizona's minority women.

Summit Goals

- Understand the challenges of these unique populations in new ways
- Foster connections between organizations tackling similar issues
- Identify little-known problems
- Celebrate successes
- Identify steps to benefit organizations and influence policy decisions

Summit Agenda

- 10:00 Welcome and Overview
10:30 Facilitated Discussion on Key Areas and Next Steps
12:00 Lunch and Keynote Speaker: Arizona State Senator Linda Lopez
1:00 The Status of State Services in Arizona: Q&A with Clarence Carter, Director, Arizona Department of Economic Security
1:45 Closing

The SHE Matters Summit is generously funded by JP Morgan Chase.

RSVP
Please RSVP by September 23 to Rosaland Hannibal
at the Arizona Foundation for Women (602) 532-2800, ext. 2 or email rhannibal@azfoundationforwomen.org.

Sponsors:

JPMORGAN CHASE & Co.

ARIZONA FOUNDATION FOR WOMEN

ASU ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY